Dear Friends:

MEMORIAL CAMP MEETING begins on Thursday, May 25th and continues on through the Sunday morning service on May 28th. Complete details are found on Page 3 of this newsletter. There are really no words to adequately express the potential life-changing experience that coming to camp meeting can offer you. This is not to say everyone will be forever changed, but many are. I remember my first camp meeting and the resulting impact. My prayer language (praying in tongues) was released to new levels. The finger of God cast out of me rebellion and rejection spirits, delivering me into a much deeper relationship with the Lord. We always tell folks, "Come expecting Jesus!" and you won't be disappointed.

SUMMER FAMILY CAMP MEETING - June 30th to July 4th (Please read the details on Page 20 of this newsletter) The focus for the young people as stated by the youth leaders, James and Danica Baker: "This world is not our home.....but we are told to be in the world, but not of the world. The only way we should be responding to the world around us is through the Holy Spirit that dwells in us. We hope to help the children understand the fruit of the Spirit and how to use it to navigate this world until Christ's return. We are excited to have David and Brittany Pennington (Daniel and Matthew) coming back to work with teenagers and David Nees joining us to work with our pre-teens. God is bringing a great group of prayer warriors together for His purpose - to train up our children in the way they should go!"

For those who have not had the opportunity to come to Summer Family Camp, it is the only camp meeting that offers specific services for young people, ages 5-18. Adult and youth services will be going on simultaneously throughout the day. Come, bring your children and grand-children and spend time together in the presence of the Lord!

2017 SPRING CAMP MEETING ON CD'S, DVD'S & MP3

MP3 - 17LHMP3CD4 - All 8 messages of the 2017 Spring Camp Meeting in MP3 format on 1 CD disk (Donation $10.00 plus $3.50 postage)

17LHCD4-1 [CD $4.00] or 17LHDVD4-1 [DVD - $6.00] - Carla Butaud - BREAKING UP FALLOW GROUND - Jeremiah 1:9-10 tells about spiritual nations, kingdoms of darkness in this land that we are commanded to destroy in order to build and plant in the Kingdom of Light. We are to break up our fallow ground until He comes and reigns righteousness upon us. Understand that after we are saved and baptized, we need the ministry of deliverance. Our own righteousness is as filthy rags and we “stinketh”. We are bound hand and foot with grave clothes such as the generational curses we were born with and the consequences of our own sins. I Corinthians 6:19 reminds us that our body is a temple of the Holy Spirit and it was bought with a price. Matthew 21:12 tells us that Jesus had to cast the money changers out of the Holy Place, the Inner Court of His temple, His House of Prayer. Jesus came to destroy the works of the devil and we are to do the same, violently, with energy and force. Force means go after it and do not stop until you obtain it. Set your plow deep and break up your fallow ground. Deliverance prayers follow this teaching.

17LHCD4-2 [CD - $4.00] or 17LHDVD4-2 [DVD - $6.00] - Jean Williams - THE GOD OF SOVEREIGNTY REVEALS SECRETS - ‘Sovereignty’ means supreme power, supremacy, and possession of power. Absolute sovereignty belongs to God only. ‘Reveal’ means to make known. ‘Secret’ means unseen, private, secluded. We serve a God who reveals His secrets. We need to yearn to know His secrets that we may do all the words of His law. However, we do not have to reveal to others everything the Holy Spirit reveals to us. God has a set and appointed time for that. Hold His secrets close to your heart until He gives you permission to share with others. Sometimes we need to be protected from those who do not have our best interest at heart. I Corinthians 2:9-10 tells us God examines and scrutinizes the deepest secrets of our heart continuously. He wants our hearts to be pure, because He only reveals His deepest secrets to the righteous. When the truth-giving Spirit comes He will guide us into the whole, full truth as He receives from the Father and transmits to us. Can the Lord trust you with the secrets of His heart?

17LHCD4-3 [CD - $4.00] or 17LHDVD4-3 [DVD - $6.00] - Kernaa Williams - MESSIANIC PSALMS 22 - Yeshua Hamashiach, is the name of our Savior, the Crowned Man with the Sword. Our Messianic Savior is the one who has power to change the world and bring peace. In Psalm 22 David prophesied Christ's crucifixion thousands of years before it happened, detail by detail. Jesus cried, "My God, My God why hast Thou forsaken me?" Many believers feel forsaken by God, left to fend for themselves, rejected, deserted, abandoned, all support and protection withdrawn. Could God be silent in your life because He is waiting to see if you will trust Him in your crucifixion? During Jesus' crucifixion, high level satanic powers opened portals to the strong bulls of Bashan, giant, blood-thirsty, wicked men. 'Dog's', sodomites, encircled Jesus as He was dying. The 'power of the dog' was the agent of execution. We are in a time when those same shameful, corrupting, evil demons from hell are making their appearance again. Jesus moved from humiliation and suffering to Glory, and we will, too. Deliverance prayers follow this teaching.

17LHCD4-4A & 4B [2 CD Set - $6.00] or 17LHDVD4-4 [DVD - $6.00] - Geri McGhee - HOW THE ENEMY GETS GROUND - Geri shares many Scriptures to help us learn what God says about preventing the enemy from gaining ground in our lives. I Peter 5:8 You can be in a 'swallowed up place'. It is a picture of a false refuge. Psalms 91 says we are to be under God's refuge. Outside of that we are in satan's territory, the shadow of death. Psalms 107:10 If you spurn the counsel of God you will be a prisoner of misery and shame. Amos 9:3-4 God will command a serpent to bite a rebellious man. Psalm 17:13 Deliver me from thy enemies which is thy sword. Acts 13:40 Take heed not to be a scoffer. Habakkuk 1:1 God creates and sends evil people and their demons to judge and correct us. He will destroy the pride and stubbornness of Judah.

Psalms 81:15 Those who hate the Lord pretend obedience. Anyone who does not love the Lord, let him be accursed. Demons carry out curses and holy angels carry out blessings. Be faithful to the Lord so the enemy cannot get ground and bring deep darkness and gloom to your life. Deliverance prayers follow this teaching.

17LHCD4-5 [CD - $4.00] or 17LHDVD4-5 [DVD - $6.00] - Nickie Pinson - HIDDEN SINS - Deal with your flesh and deny yourself on a daily basis or you will not be able to maintain your deliverance. Numbers 32:23 Be sure your sin will find you out. I Timothy 5:24 Sins will follow after a man. Hide it now but regret it later. John 3:20 Everyone who does evil hates the Light lest his deeds be reproved. Luke 12:2-3 There is nothing covered that shall not be revealed, neither hid that shall not be known. Ecclesiastes 12:14 God will bring every secret work into judgment. Mark 4:22 There is nothing hid which shall not be manifested. Romans 2:16 God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to His gospel. I Corinthians 4:5 The Lord will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and will make manifest the thoughts of the heart. Genesis 3:1 Eve was drawn to stand by 'the tree' and was making provision for her flesh to sin. She and Adam thought they could hide their sin against God. Psalm 51 leads us in repentance. Let us be of a broken and contrite spirit and humble ourselves under the mighty hand of God.

17LHCD4-6 [CD - $4.00] or 17LHDVD4-6 [DVD - $6.00] - Jean Williams - THE WINDS OF CHANGE - We live in a world that is rapidly changing. Technology and fashion change daily. Are we changing? We have all done things that were not right. But the wind of the Holy Spirit, the wind of change, is starting to blow and is beginning to get rid of the garbage and debris we have stored in our lives, all that is hidden beneath the surface. When you leave here, do not think that you can get by with anything. The Almighty sees and knows it all. God wants to bring new life to your deadness and dryness and restore resurrection power in you. Psalm 103:16 The wind passes over it and it is gone and the place thereof shall know it no more. No remembrance of the past. God wipes it clean. It is gone. When you repent of your sins and say yes to the Holy Spirit and He comes, it's a wrap. God wants to awaken a spirit of revival in you. You will no longer be the same. He is radiant, light and pure and He is Holy. Allow yourself to be changed into that image of Christ and demonstrate His power. Personal ministry follows this teaching.

17LHCD4-7 [CD - $4.00] or 17LHDVD4-7 [DVD - $6.00] - Kernaa Williams - LEVIATHAN IN THE CHURCH - Zachariah 13:6 "I was wounded in the house of my friends." Here is a sketch of Revelation 2:1 and the conditions of today's end-time churches. 1) Ephesus: you have left your first love; religious imposters have entered the church. 2) Smyrna: you are reviled by those who say they are Jews and are not, the synagogue of satan, bringing spirits of intimidation and fear. 3) Pergamos: you exist in an area where satan is enthroned as Balaam. 4) Thyatira: you tolerate Jezebel, a spirit of compromise and sexual immorality. 5) Sardis: you are dead; the spirit of tradition has entered and made the authority of the Word of no effect. 6) Philadelphia: you have a draining spirit of weakness because of spoken word curses. 7) Laodicea: you are lukewarm because of wealth and pride. Job 41:34 Leviathan is the king of the sons of pride, an animal that twists, winds and coils, a marine spirit. Proverbs 6:16-19 and Job 13:1-3 tell about the seven abominations of pride and the self-righteous attitude that God hates. Deliverance prayers follow this teaching.

17LHCD4-8 [CD - $4.00] or 17LHDVD4-8 [DVD - $6.00] - Nickie Pinson - THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD IS UPON ME - No matter where you go, no matter what the situation, whatever "mission field" God has put you in, what is important is that the Spirit of the Lord is upon you. God has predestinated you to be conformed to the image of His Son by the power of the Spirit of the Lord. That is what God says is “good”. Where are the works that bear witness with signs, wonders, and gifts of the Holy Ghost that are supposed to follow you in your ministry? You are to forsake all and follow Him. It is not to be about how comfortable you are, because all who follow Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. Thankfully your sufficiency is of God. Luke 4:1 You shall worship the Lord your God and Him only are you to serve. You need the power of the Spirit of the Lord upon you to be able to refuse the tempting offers that continuously come from the evil one. God does not need your best education, skills, training or talents. God wants you to be a vessel available to Him so He can flow through you. Surrender. That is when the Spirit of the Lord is upon you.

IN MEMORY OF NORMAN PARISH

On March 26th, 2017, Norman Parish was relocated to Paradise, shortly before his 85th birthday, serving more than 60 years in faithful ministry in Guatemala, all of Latin America and other continents throughout the world. In addition to his apostolic calling, the Lord deeply anointed him in deliverance and spiritual warfare with a razor sharp precision. The work (Continental Missionary Crusade) the Lord gave to Norman's parents, and then passed on to him, continues under the direction of his son, Dario. We bless the family and pray for continued growth and expansion for His Kingdom purposes.

BY MERCY AND TRUTH INIQUITY IS PURGED

“Surely He hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed.

*All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise Him; He hath put Him to grief: when thou shalt make His soul an offering for sin, He shall see His seed, He shall prolong His days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in His hand. He shall see of the travail of His soul, and shall be satisfied: by His knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for He shall bear their iniquities.”
Isaiah 53: 40-7; 10-11

He is the God of Truth without iniquity! “He is the Rock, His work is perfect: for all His ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is He.” As He continues to form the Christ in us, we will be without iniquity! He has paid the price. He bore the bruises on His own body to destroy our iniquities. Our heritage is in Him. The shedding of His blood brought an end to the iniquity all the way back to Adam. Does that not give you the faith to believe He destroyed iniquity in your blood line as well? Hallelujah!

“Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.” Ezekiel 28: 14-15

Satan fell from the presence of God because iniquity was found in him. We must intreat the Lord, asking Him to remove out of us every trace of the iniquity that was found in satan, or we too, will fall from the presence of the Lord. “Not every one that saith unto Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father which is in heaven.”

Many will say to Me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophe-sied in Thy name? and in Thy name have cast out devils? and in Thy name done many wonderful works?

*And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from Me, ye that work iniquity.” Matthew 7:21-23

“The Son of man shall send forth His angels, and they shall gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;” Matthew 13:41

Thanks be to God! If we press towards Mercy and Truth, whereby iniquity is purged, we have the assurance that deliverance is forthcoming. Jesus is that Mercy and Truth and He is faithful to His Word.

Iniquities are buried deep within us. They are lodged in our blood lines. “Our fathers have sinned, and are not; and we have borne their iniquities.” Lamentations 5:7

“The LORD is longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.” Numbers 14:18; Exodus 20:5; 34:7; Deuteronomy 5:9

We think we are the way we are - because that is the way we have always been. And that is true. The Bible says, “Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.” Psalms 51:5 But the Word of God declares that He will cleanse us and forgive us from all our iniquities! There is still more newness of life for us to walk into! Most of us have labored under the oppressions of these iniquities all of our lives, never realizing they are the results of bloodline bondages. Oh, what a glorious day to know Jesus as the one who was bruised for our iniquities!

It is time to let the Holy Spirit “crack” the case of the iniquity factor in our lives. The exodus of iniquity has begun! The mystery has been solved! The man of sin is being revealed! Yes, he is the one “Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.”
2 Thessalonians 2:4

The day of the Lord is at hand. Today is the day to submit yourself unto God. Today is the day of salvation (deliverance)! You choose, this day, whom you will serve.

“Not every one that saith unto Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father which is in heaven.”

We challenge you to study for yourself the subject of iniquity and ask the Holy Spirit to reveal the iniquities in your life that you might repent and seek deliverance. “But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid His face from you, that He will not hear.”
Isaiah 59:2

(Strong’s Dictionary defines the Hebrew word “iniquities” as used in Isaiah 53 to mean “Perversity”. Other references to iniquity and iniquities mean moral evil, unjust, unrighteous, lawless, illegal, wicked, transgression of the law, to distort morally.)

This above article was originally printed in the March/April 1988 issue of Voices From His Excellent Glory. It was written and compiled by Patti King. Let us fast forward .....

It is now the May/June 2017 issue of Voices From His Excellent Glory - twenty-nine years have passed since the Lord gave me that article. As we are putting together this current issue, the Holy Spirit quickened me to search the archives for this article. After locating and reading it, the “light” came on and I knew it was for such a time as this - to share again.

God has visited my husband and me this past year in such a way that we can only say, “To God be the Glory.”

Time and space does not permit all the details. Suffice to say that HE has removed an iniquity from each of us that we have individually struggled with all of our lives.

This is unlike any deliverance we have ever experienced. We know what it’s like to have demons cast out of us. We have both experienced curses being broken over us. We walk in forgiveness, repentance and confession of sin because those are the choices you must make if you desire to be an overcomer in Jesus. However, all the repenting, confessing, binding, breaking, fasting and every other “formula” that the deliverance ministry sometimes falls captive to, didn’t resolve these problems. We can’t explain, nor do we understand what the difference is between sin, iniquity and transgressions. But there is a difference because they are named individually.

And out of no where, through nothing that we did, God visited us. Kevin know longer bites his finger nails and I am no longer an enemy of the cross of Christ, serving the god of the belly. We did nothing to make this happen. We just continue to give God permission to change our hearts and we accept, receive and are so very grateful for His bruising, His mercy and His truth.

“Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.” 1 Corinthians 5:17 May we encourage you to never give up on Jesus. It may take years but His promise that “all things are become new” is true! Blessings, Kevin & Patti King

MINISTERING UNDER
by Jack Harris

Well, what all transpired here? All right, Jesus...now what they did, what God did was that He injected...God is eternal...the Christ is eternal...the anointed pre-existed Christ is eternal...so what God did was, He injected into His eternal life, into the Son's eternal life, He injected the death realm, which is called "time". It's a time realm. In eternity there's no time. You follow me? But Jesus, when He took on the form of a servant, He became restricted to time, and related to time. He aged just at the same rate that you and I age. He was a baby just like we were.

You know, a baby human's the most helpless creature there is. A cow can birth a calf, and in five minutes he can outrun a ten year old boy. A colt from a mare, horses, you understand, in twenty minutes after he's birthed, oh, in just no time he stands on his feet, but he stands wobbly there for about four, five minutes, kindly gets his breath good and gets used to breathing oxygen and then he can take off and he can outrun a good running man. And almost all other creatures are more self sufficient than a baby. But a baby is absolutely dependent on parental care continually for at least, well, for a long time. But he's absolutely...you can't just leave him alone for a whole year or so.

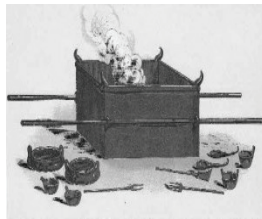

And God was in Christ, and in Him was all the Godhead bodily. "Weren't You afraid to risk this, Lord?" "No, I already set My King in My holy hill of Zion." Hallelujah! Amen!

"The foundation of God standeth sure, Timothy, my son. God knoweth them that are His." And so He injected Jesus into His eternal...into eternity...He injected Himself into thirty-three and a half years, more or less, into time. Everything in this time realm is subject to death. Everything dies here. You know, there's an old saying, "You can put a bad apple in a bushel of apples and they'll all go bad. That's true. But what's also true is that you can put a bushel of apples that there ain't no bad one in and they'll still all go bad. That's true. The reason is that death is working in them. Death is already at work in them.

“Oh, wretched man that I am, who shall deliver me from this body of death?” cried the apostle Paul. I've got to break out of this body of death, and come in to a body of life. Ah, “but the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.”

I'll tell you...so he injected Himself in, and He took on the form of a servant. One of the faces of the Christ was an ox. That is a servant. Listen, there was an old Hebrew coin, one of the oldest with inscriptions on the back of it or the front, inscribed or however they stamped on there, it has the picture of an ox, just looking straight ahead. And on one side of him is a plow and on the other side is an altar. Well, I don't know their intent but it sure speaks to me loudly. An ox was the only animal that could be a servant - could serve - work, that is, and also be a sacrifice. And here stands the ox between the plow and the altar, waiting to see whether he takes the duties of a servant today or he becomes a sacrifice on that altar. He's ready to go either direction. He is a servant. Oh, Hallelujah!

And until we come to this place, we will not have fulfilled the law of Christ. We will not have fulfilled the high calling that there is on Him, until we can stand facing Him, with the plow on one side and the altar on the other. If we live, we live unto Christ and if we die, we die unto Him. Until we get willing to become that offering. Jesus, the Bible said of Him, that He poured out His soul unto death. He told us the soul is the mind, will and emotions. And He poured out His soul unto death. He was numbered with the transgressors. He bare the sins of many and made intercession for the transgressors. "He'll seal the travail of His soul and be satisfied. By His knowledge shall My righteous servant justify many." Hallelujah! I'll tell you, He came into the world and it was to fulfill the prophetic projection of Abraham to Isaac when he said, "God will present Himself a sacrifice."

And He came. He came to serve. And His own testimony was that He did only the things that pleased God. Only the things that please Him. He did only the things that He heard the Father say. Oh, this is Sonship. Hallelujah! This is where we have to come to, if we would reign with Him in the Kingdom Age. I'll tell you, a lot of people are going to wait another thousand years to come forth when that First Resurrection takes place. Only the elect will rise in that Resurrection and be caught up. Those that are alive and remain will be caught up together with them that came back to claim the redemption of their bodies. And God will unite the spirits of just men made perfect, that army in the heavens. You know, there's an army in the heavens that is exercising its fight right now. And there's an army in the earth that is exercising. And when God brings them together...you know the Bible says the devil is the prince of the powers of the air...well, there's an army in heaven that's keeping him from exalting himself any higher. We've got him caught between two factions of a great army. Hallelujah!...this one on the ground and that one in the air.

And he's the prince of the power of the air caught right between us. We've got him in a crossfire. He's not going to be able to survive, because we're going to pour the heat on here. As God enables us, we're going to pour on the heat. Hallelujah! Well, but see, the religious order won't tell you this. The religious order won't have this. It takes more than religion to do it. Jesus, as long as He was just a projection in this Book, the religious people gladly received Him, didn't they? They'd read the projections of Isaiah and Ezekiel and Jeremiah and the other prophets and they'd breathe with a spirit of pride. Yeah, our hero, yeah.

But I tell you one day He stepped out of this Book as big as life. The Word became flesh and dwelt among them and when He became life, when all the things that they cherished so much in the Word became personified in Jesus, He tore up their nest. They couldn't relate to Him. He couldn't find a religious order that He could relate to or He could attach Himself to. You know I have an idea, if He was to do it again today, that He wouldn't find much more of a reception, don't you? He'd sure tear up some form, wouldn't He? Religion is not enough to get the job done.

Let's turn over to St. Luke, Chapter 10, and show you a well known incident here. It begins in the 30th verse. Jesus said, answering... He's answering the question about who is the best neighbor, and He said, "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among thieves which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him and departed leaving him half dead, and by chance there came down a certain priest that way and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him and passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan as he journeyed came where he was and when he saw him he had compassion on him and went to him and bound up his wounds pouring in oil and wine and set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And on the morrow when he departed he took out two pence, gave them to the host and said unto him, Take care of him and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come to him I will repay thee."

So then let's look at this a little closer. This man is in Jerusalem, which is a type of the church and he's going down to Jericho. That is, if you leave the church in any direction you go, you're going down. It's down. Not only was this geographically down, but it's a descent...it's spiritual aptitude also. And when he gets down, he fell among thieves and they stripped him of his raiment, wounded him, left him half dead, and I guess if he was half dead, he was half alive. And they left him this way, and here he is, laying there in that ditch, half dead and half alive. Can't help himself and there's nobody around but he still has his consciousness. He looks up the road and sees a priest coming. And oh boy, he takes great hope, because this priest is a representative of the religious order, religious system. And so he comes and he looks on this old boy here, but he just passed by on the other side. He just came to look and went on over to the other side and kept on up to Jerusalem to join the other priests and the other religious order up there. And this guy loses hope again.

But this priest, now, he goes on up to his official duties there, meets with the other priests and while they...whatever they do, eat that poppin' cereal or whatever, or whatever they're doing, they said, "Hey... there's a guy down the road there that somebody really did a number on him. I mean, he's had it. And he's half dead, and he's sure in bad shape and I tell you my heart sure did go out to him. I tell ya, fellas, I guess what we ought to do is form a committee and see if we can appoint somebody to take care of situations like this." That's a religious order.

Well, so this guy he's about all but lost hope but he looks and sees a Levite coming. Well, a Levite, he's part of the religious order, too. And so he takes great hope again. Here comes a kind man. He comes and looks on him and passed on the other side. He did about the same thing the priest did. Now I imagine when he got up to Jerusalem and met up with his colleagues, that he gave them the same story. That old boy down there, somebody really done him in. We ought to set up some kind of a program to do something about these things. That's a religious order. "We ought to form a committee, yeah, to take care of this thing." And of course, before they can take care of it, we got to form a committee over that committee and then another committee to watch both committees, and the first thing you know, we have "committee'd" everything to death and the man's still laying down there dying. (Continued in next issue)

2017 SUMMER FAMILY CAMP Friday, June 30th - Tuesday, July 4th Adults, Youth & Children

Ministering to the children & youth will be James & Danica Baker and their appointed helpers.

Camp meeting kicks off for everyone on Friday, June 30th with supper at 5:00 and the 7 pm service. Services for the young people (ages 5 to 18) will start on Saturday, July 1st and continue through Monday, July 3rd. Camp meeting for everyone will conclude with lunch after the 10 am service on Tuesday, July 4th.

Cost per child is $50.00 all inclusive. Please bring sleeping bag or bedding, towels, soap, insect repellent, personal items and swim suits. Girls must wear one-piece suits and boys must have trunks, not briefs.

Parents and guardians are responsible for the children and young people they bring. This is not a camp where you send them off for a week – you are here also – attending the adult meetings. They will sleep with their parents or guardians. Our children and grandchildren desperately need to have something they can believe in, count on and trust to be there for them tomorrow. They need Jesus. We invite you to bring them and give them an opportunity to let the Holy Spirit minister to them.

Ministering the adults will be Carla Butaud, Geri McGhee, Nickie Pinson, Randy Richey, Kerna and Jean Williams.
