"I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me." Psalms 101:3

Dear Friends:

We don't play church here! Camp meetings are held so the people of God who are struggling with life issues can come and be set free from demonic bondages in the mighty and powerful name of Jesus. There are often additional things the Lord wants to do for them while they are here but they have the assurance in knowing we cast demons out of Christians. The ministry here at Lake Hamilton Bible Camp is sincere, anointed, compassionate, and desirous to see everyone released from captivity. The willingness to repent, forgive and let go of sin is the believer's responsibility. We can't do that for them but Jesus will help them.

In our October, 2024, newsletter we updated you on some of the hail damage repairs that had been accomplished. As was mentioned then, the parsonage, cabin and A-frame roofs had been replaced. Since that time, the siding replacement on the cabins, and repairs for the roof attached to the A-frame (which holds the air-conditioners for the A-frame and the condenser for the walk-in refrigerator) have also been completed. Praise the Lord!

We have obtained estimates to replace the wood on the bridge over the waterway which connects one side of the property to the other. That project is on the schedule to be completed in the Spring. Again, we extend our heartfelt thanks to those who have sent financial help towards these needs.

We will keep you updated as we move forward making repairs and upgrading structures here on the campground. For those of you viewing this on the internet you can see some construction pictures from 1975-1977 and 1978-1980 that reflect building the original chapel, A-Frame and the steel building. God has been so faithful over the years to supply the tradesmen, finances, volunteers and protection to accomplish all of these and many other projects. Lake Hamilton Bible Camp was birthed from the heart of God. This gives us the confidence that as He has provided these many years, His provision will continue so that His plans and purposes are fulfilled.

25LCMP3CD2 - 2025 LADIES CONFERENCE ON 1 MP3 CD - 6 Services - 6 Messages - $10.00

25LCCD2-1 [CD - $4.00] or 25LCDVD2-1 [DVD - $5.00] - Deborah Vails - WHAT MUST I DO TO BE SAVED? - Deborah is given an assignment from God to remind the people they must be born again. We must know Jesus Christ. He must be the Lord of our lives. If He is not Lord, then who is? She lays a deep foundation of seven principles that instruct us on what we must do to be saved. True salvation is more than confessing. It is professing and walking out the newness of life that God gives. We are bought with the price of the precious blood of Jesus. Our lives are no longer our own. He will help us make the right choices. Deliverance and healing are needed at times and five necessary steps are shared to help in that process. We all want the yokes in our lives destroyed and these specific Scriptural truths point us in the right direction to do it God's way. We must learn to obey the commands and directives He gives us.

25LCCD2-2 [CD - $4.00] or 25LCDVD2-2 [DVD - $5.00] - Jean Williams - EXPOSING THE SPIRIT OF ANGER - Anger can be easily recognizable, or deep seated and kept undercover - until there is an explosion! This spirit has the potential to produce much havoc, devastation and misery in our lives. There are many people in prison or dead today, who, if they had only taken a moment to stop and not get angry could have had a different outcome. The world offers alternative courses to manage anger but Christians need deliverance, and recognition of when anger leads to sin. She visits the seriousness of the power of our words - life and death are in the power of the tongue. If you want to dig deeper into the anger realm and how God feels about it, take a moment to look at Matthew 5:22. The compassion and anointing of the Holy Spirit is present in this service to dethrone anger and its various symptoms. Wonderful deliverance ministry and special prayers conclude this message.

25LCCD2-3A & 3B [2 CD Set - $6.00] or 25LCDVD2-3 [DVD - $5.00] - Callie Richey - REJECTION - The Word of God tells us we are loved, adopted and accepted. But rejection has an assignment against us to steal these truths away from us. We must decide not to partner with rejection. It becomes much easier to adhere to that choice once healing and deliverance takes place in those areas. This message is one of encouragement. Even if the arrows of rejection are targeting us, it doesn't have to hurt or sting. Rejection is not our identity. Callie is a living testimony of one who has come out of rejection - physically, emotionally and spiritually. Through it all she has come to the place where she "wants to look like the Father". Have all the fiery darts stopped? No. However, now she knows that person or group must be hurt or wounded in some way that is causing them to reject her. Her journey is transferring all the hurts and wounds she has experienced into a vessel full of God's tender love. We are not an accident nor to be discarded. Let these deliverance prayers transform your life.

25LCCD2-4 [CD - $4.00] or 25LCDVD2-4 [DVD - $5.00] - Deborah Vails - DEFEATING DEMONIC INTRUDERS - Some tactics the enemy uses are to ignite the lust of the flesh, lust of the eyes and the pride of life. We see this in Genesis 3 and Matthew 4. In Matthew, Jesus didn't have lengthy conversations with the devil. He simply quoted the Word. Jesus defeated the enemy because He knew what was being spoken did not line up with the Word of God. To fight effectively, we must use the Word to shut him down. His efforts to plant seeds of doubt, maneuver in such a way as to not be a threat, and know his mode of transmission so as to not be recognized, are all methods he uses to entice us to believe him and not believe the voice of God. The Lord has commissioned Deborah to tell God's people that He wants them to learn to defeat the enemy! We have to develop the ability to recognize the enemy when he comes to our mind. God has given us the authority to take authority over every demonic intruder that would come in our life. Learn to be a more effective warrior and take heed to this insightful message.

25LCCD2-5 [CD - $4.00] or 25LCDVD2-5 [DVD - $5.00] - Jean Williams - EMPOWERED BY THE HOLY SPIRIT - Jean gives us many Scriptural functions of the Holy Spirit. But the passion she has in sharing this message lights a fire of faith which brings a thirst and hunger for the power, presence and abundance of the Holy Spirit's indwelling. No one can lead a victorious life and fulfil the Great Commission without the empowerment of the Holy Spirit. How often do we depend on and are attentive to the Holy Spirit teaching us, guiding our lives and giving us God's wisdom for our daily lives? Don't allow your past to control your future in Christ. You are an overcomer and destined to fulfil His purposes. Without the Holy Spirit we cannot even come close to living the life God has called us to. God's goal for the Holy Spirit in our lives is not just for maintenance but for abundance. (Eph 3:19) The fullness of God is about allowing Him to settle in and make Himself at home, and fully influence and govern our lives. When we are filled with the Holy Spirit there is less of our wants, desires, sins and our influences in life. Our Christian life is meant to be an ongoing experience in the life of the Holy Spirit.

25LCCD2-6 [CD - $4.00] or 25LCDVD2-6 [DVD - $5.00] - Callie Richey - SPIRIT OF OFFENSE - You may not include in so-called "big" sins such as fornication, adultery, drugs or alcohol but the weapon of offense can cause even greater damage if we are not careful. If we are walking around with anger, bitterness and resentment it will make us sick and cause great damage. When we hold on to grudges we are tormented. Forgiveness must be achieved - no matter what has been done to us. Offense is a bait of satan, and is one of the most common baits he uses to trap the saints of God. (2 Tim 2:24-26) Offended people can be divided into two categories - those who have been wronged and those who believe they have been wronged. Pride can keep the spirit of offense "propped" up and keep one blinded from the truth God wants to reveal. Sometimes we just have to tell the Lord, "I'm willing to forgive and give up this offense but I need Your help!". And He will, because He knows our hearts. Deliverance prayers and ministry conclude this practical teaching that helps us "walk the walk" and not just "talk the talk"!

REPENTANCE by Pastor Chris Simpson

Worldly Versus Godly Repentance

"Thus says the Lord of hosts: 'I will punish Amalek for what he did to Israel, how he ambushed him on the way when he came up from Egypt. Now go and attack Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and do not spare them..." (1 Samuel 15:2-3)

The nation of Amalek was the first nation to attack Israel when they came out of Egypt many years before (see Exodus 17). It was God's desire to judge Amalek through Saul, the first king of Israel. Therefore, God gave Saul a very clear and direct order to utterly destroy the Amalekites and all that they had, but it did not happen. Saul was not faithful to carry out the Lord's wishes because he didn't want to destroy the best of the plunder gained from the battle. He also saved alive the Amalekite king, Agag. This greatly displeased the Lord.

"Now the word of the Lord came to Samuel, saying, 'I greatly regret that I have set up Saul as king, for he has turned back from following Me, and has not performed My commandments.' And it grieved Samuel, and he cried out to the Lord... Then Samuel went to Saul, and Saul said to him, 'Blessed are you of the Lord! I have performed the commandment of the Lord.' But Samuel said, 'What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?' And Saul said, 'They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and the oxen, to sacrifice to the Lord your God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed." (1 Samuel 15:10-15)

Saul was very quick to blame "the people" when Samuel confronted him with his failure to do the Lord's will. However, we're told clearly that the fault lay with both Saul and the people. Often our own kids will respond the same way. When confronted, children say, "It wasn't me, it was him." This tendency to place blame somewhere other than on yourself goes all the way back to the Garden of Eden. When God confronted Adam with his sin, he blamed Eve, and when Eve was confronted, she blamed the snake. From that time forward, it has been man's tendency to want to justify, rationalize, or excuse his sin.

Look at Saul's explanation as to why he failed to complete God's command: "Why then did you not obey the voice of the Lord? Why did you swoop down on the spoil, and do evil in the sight of the Lord?' And Saul said to Samuel, 'But I have obeyed the voice of the Lord, and gone on the mission on which the Lord sent me, and brought back Agag king of Amalek; I have utterly destroyed the Amalekites. But the people took of the plunder, sheep and oxen, the best of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice to the Lord your God in Gilgal." (1 Samuel 15:19-21)

The logic Saul uses in this passage is convoluted. He reasons that it was in order to "sacrifice to the Lord" that he did not obey the Lord. In other words, he claims to have disobeyed the Lord in order to honor the Lord! We see here in Saul the very picture of a "religious spirit." It is the epitome of empty religion to sacrifice to the Lord, yet at the same time remain unwilling to obey Him. Let me give you an example that may hit home.

People go to church all the time to worship and praise the Lord, yet all the while their hearts are full of unforgiveness and bitterness toward others. Many times the very people that they are worshiping with are the ones that they are holding bitterness against. Jesus said "Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift." (Matthew 5:23-24) It is religion when you worship God, but refuse to obey this clear command.

"So Samuel said: 'Has the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, As in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, And to heed than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, And stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the Lord, He also has rejected you from being king.' Then Saul said to Samuel, 'I have sinned, for I have transgressed the commandment of the Lord and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice. Now therefore, please pardon my sin, and return with me, that I may worship the Lord.'" (1 Samuel 15:19-27)

In response to Saul's disobedience, Samuel gives him his famous rebuke equating disobedience with witchcraft. He told Saul that God had rejected him from being King. With his back against the wall, Saul admitted, "I've sinned." If only he had stopped there! Instead, he continued to try to excuse his actions by saying that he did it because he "feared the people." However, this wasn't so; Saul was not a man easily intimidated by others. In fact, he was a tyrant who slaughtered 120 of the Lord's priests because one of them had given aid to David.

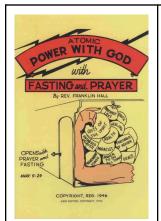

"But Samuel said to Saul, 'I will not return with you, for you have rejected the word of the Lord, and the Lord has rejected you from being king over Israel.' And as Samuel turned around to go away, Saul seized the edge of his robe, and it tore ... Then he said, 'I have sinned; yet honor me now, please, before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, that I may worship the Lord your God. So Samuel turned back after Saul, and Saul worshiped the Lord." (1 Samuel 15:26-27; 30-31)

Saul, as the leader of Israel, desperately wanted the credibility that Samuel could give Him before his subjects. He wanted Samuel to cover his sin so that he wouldn't lose the confidence of the people. Samuel complied, knowing that Saul would be exposed for who he really was in the end. Saul's response shows that his "repentance" was only for the sake of expediency and did not reflect a true change of heart. Saul wanted to have his religious comforts without having to face and deal with the root rebellion in his heart. Unfortunately, this is true with many believers today. They've embraced religion, but have never truly turned from the sin in their hearts.

Unless you have truly changed your mind concerning sinful habits and behaviors, you are probably going to fall when temptation comes. It's only when you hate a sin that you will be truly willing to resist it when temptation and testing arrive. Proverbs 24:16 tells us "a just man falls seven times, and rises up again." He rises again because he does not want sin to win in his life. A further look at Saul's life will show how this unrepentant attitude shows up time and again (To Be Continued)

MEDIA TREASURES ON HEALTH AND FASTING

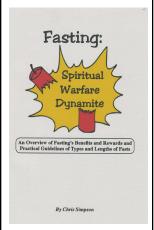

ATOMIC POWER WITH GOD with FASTING and PRAYER by Franklin Hall - ($7.00 + postage) In 1946 a group of saints came together in San Diego, from various denominations, to hear the teaching of Jesus Christ's Gospel concerning prayer and fasting. Many of these Christians entered into consecration fasts. A real test was made as to the efficacy of fasting. Some of these fasts were from twenty-one to more than sixty days in continuous duration, without food. They were burdened to see the Lord move in a special spiritual way. These and many others wanted to see a world-wide revival for the salvation and healing of mankind and the restoration of the gifts of the Spirit.

The amazing results as these scores of Christians united in fasting and praying were stupendous! Many miracles of healing were performed by the Holy Spirit in the Name of Jesus. Demons were cast out, lunatics healed, cancers disappeared, the blind saw, the crippled walked, stomach ulcers disappeared, palsy was quieted, tuberculosis healed, asthma, bronchitis, the smoking and drinking habits were given up and many more sicknesses vanished. Scores of folk were baptized at the altars. Paper - 64 Pages (Original ©1946)

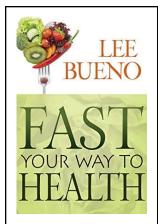

GLORIFIED FASTING by Franklin Hall -The ABC of Fasting by Franklin Hall - ($7.00 + postage) Presenting both scientific and spiritual revelations, Franklin Hall simplifies the understanding of any length of fasting and teaches why the fast should be broken very carefully and how to do it. "It is not the purpose of this book, or any of the other articles on the subject of fasting, to leave an impression that this practice is the Scriptural cure-all for spiritual, moral and bodily complaints. Emphasis is given the subject for the purpose of quickly enlightening God's people who seem to be "falling away" from the old-time faith, and to prevent the unhappy drift towards modernism that is so sweeping the land." Editors note: This statement in the book was written approximately 75 years ago when he was witnessing a falling away. Perhaps the material contained herein might possibly remain relevant in today's world! He is the author of numerous books on fasting and healing. Paper - 63 Pages (Revised Edition ©Registered 1973 by Franklin Hall)

FASTING: SPIRITUAL WARFARE DYNAMITE by Chris Simpson - ($2.00 + postage) This booklet provides an overview of fasting's benefits and rewards and practical guidelines of types and lengths of fasts. Do you need dynamite in your life? Do you want more than just a "firecracker" type of power to resist sin and the devil? Well, there's good news for you! The Lord has the dynamite you need to blast out those stubborn areas of sin and rebellion. Jesus said, "You shall receive power, after the Holy Spirit is come upon you..." (Acts 1:8) The word "power" here in the Greek is dunamos. And from dunamos we get the words dynamic, dynamo, and dynamite. So when you receive the Holy Spirit, you receive dynamite power.

Fasting "lights the fuse" that sets off this dynamic power of the Holy Spirit in your everyday life. Fasting is one of the most powerful weapons of spiritual warfare that God has given to His people. Yet there's very little teaching offered in this area. Most believers are quite unaware of the power and benefits found in the discipline of fasting. Booklet - 28 pages - @Chris N. FAST YOUR WAY TO HEALTH by Lee Bueno - ($17.00 + postage) Having received a death sentence from her doctors, Lee Bueno-Aguer found that God had given her a better prescription--fasting to regain her health. From her own and others' experiences, as well as sound scriptural and medical guidelines, she discusses many aspects of fasting, including:

Who should and should not fast - Various kinds of fasts - How to begin and end a fast - The difference between fasting and starvation - Drugs versus fasting - The curing of life-threatening diseases - Fasting for longevity

She reports on many who have fasted and prayed for others and seen miraculous results, including marriages restored, the insane brought back to normal, the disappearance of tumors, and even raising of the dead. As you read this book, you will discover the amazing ways God has designed your body to restore itself and your spirit to be uplifted during a fast. Paper - 189 Pages (©1991 by Whitaker House)

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT HEALTHY LIVING by Rex Russell, MD - ($19.00 + postage) In a world infatuated with junk food and fad diets, why have we overlooked the simple instructions provided in the Bible that have guided people for thousands of years toward better health? You don't have to be Jewish or Christian to find wisdom for healthier living in this doctor's scripturally based book on eating and feeling better, and living longer. You'll learn the truth about grains and nuts, and the ins and outs of meat, fat, and sweeteners. Discover why beverages can be the elixirs of life or death. The principles here will help anyone who is sick and tired of feeling sick and tired find energy, freedom from illness, and more vibrant health. Paper - 282 Pages (©1996, 2006 by Rex Russell, MD Previously published by Regal, Revel edition published 2014)

Dr Russell was a board-certified invasive radiologist before his death in 2009. He attended medical school at Baylor University in Houston, TX, and completed his residency at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, MN. During his career he practiced at two of the nation's outstanding hospitals: St.Luke's Hospital in Houston and the Regional Medical Center in Fort Smith, AR, where resided for 34 years and taught a weekly Bible/health class at the First Baptist Church of Fort Smith.

ARE YOU WHAT YOU EAT? by Glen Miller - ($1.50 + postage) - Sub-title is "Trichinosis in the Human Body" - This booklet was compiled from a series of articles written by Glen Miller in 2002 and published in Lake Hamilton Bible Camp's newsletter. It explores the Scriptures laying out many of the reasons God's people suffer from sickness, disease and infirmity. Starting in Exodus 15:26 where God says if we will give ear to His commandments, and keep all His statutes, He will put none of the diseases upon us which He brought upon the Egyptians for He is the God that healeth us. Along with personal testimony, he shares documentation regarding what Trichinosis is and its symptoms in the human body. His passion to see God's people healed and delivered ignited him to write on the importance of what God considers clean and unclean in our dietary intake. Adam and Eve were told not to eat a certain thing but did it anyway. God has told us not to eat certain things but we do it anyway, thus reaping the consequences of sickness, disease and infirmity.
